Step 1: Determine the significance level.

Step 2: Find the corresponding Z-score from the table.

Step 3: Locate the Z-score in the normal distribution table.

Step 4: Determine the required area probability.

Step 5: Read the corresponding Z-score.

Step 6: Shade the area in the distribution that corresponds to the Z-score that you determined in Step 1.